Raising a concern/complaint

If a candidate (or parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification, Saint Benedict CVA encourages an informal resolution in the first instance. This can be undertaken by raising the concern or complaint in person, by telephone or in writing to the Exams Officer or Assistant Headteacher..

If a concern or complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

All documentation relating to the submission of a formal complaint is available from, and should be returned to the Exams Officer or Assistant Headteacher. Formal complaints will be logged and acknowledged within 5 working days.

To make a formal complaint, candidates (or parents/carers) must complete and return a complaints form.

How a formal complaint is investigated

The Head of Centre will further investigate or appoint a member of the senior leadership team (who is not involved in the grounds for complaint and has no personal interest in the outcome) to investigate the complaint and report on the findings and conclusion.

The findings and conclusion of any investigation will be provided to the complainant within The member of staff appointed to carry out the investigation will, if appropriate, speak to the candidate (or his/her parents/carer) within 10 working days of receiving the complaint, to discuss the matter. If possible, a resolution will be reached at this stage.

However, it may be necessary for further investigations to be undertaken a clear timeline will be shared.

Written records will be kept of all meetings and interviews held in relation to the complaint. Once so far as it is practicable, all the relevant facts have been established, a decision will be made within 3 working weeks and the candidate / parents / carer will be informed of the findings and conclusion in writing..

Internal appeals procedure

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

To submit an appeal, candidates (or parents/carers) must complete and return a Complaints and Appeals Form to the Deputy Headteacher.

Appeals will be logged and acknowledged within within 5 working days.

The appeal will be referred to Deputy Headteacher for consideration.

It will be the responsibility of Deputy Headteacher to inform the appellant of the final conclusion in accordance with the internal appeals procedure.
